

Welcome to Ken Harris Art School

Have you just decided that you want to learn to paint? or want to paint something different or new or exciting? or maybe you are just inquisitive to see how easy painting actually is? The Ken Harris Learn to Paint DVDs give you an excellent basis to begin building your skills or extending your current skills in painting. Landscape painting is just so rewarding and fulfilling. The No. 1 Oil Painting teacher Ken Harris has setup step by step teaching DVDs that lead you from a blank canvas to a painting that you will be proud of. You will hang your paintings with pride and your friends will want to know where you went to get classes. You will enrich your life with every brush stroke and enrich every aspect of your work and your home life as you build confidence. You can learn to paint in your home, at your pace and with the ease and the grace of master painters worldwide. All DVDs are delivered to your home and you will tell yourself "This is so easy, why have I not tried painting the Ken Harris way before". You can start now, just see how easy it is done - Click on the links to the left. (Sample videos (not DVD quality) are available for each of the pieces of artwork as well as a sample image and a closeup is available for each painting). Thank you again for visiting the Ken Harris Art School website. Please do check it out regularly as we will be adding more and more "Learn to Paint" DVDs as time goes by. Artwork is also for sale at www.kenharrisart.com.au if you do not want to give it a go yourself. Remember - "The first brush stroke is always the hardest"
